

THE RIGHT TRACK

WITH TONY REED, CRAIG COOK, BEN SCADDEN, LINCOLN MOORE & SIMON WHITE racing@adv.newsltd.com.au

Big Saturday for stipes

BUSY day for the stewards and the vets at Morphettville last Saturday. Conservatorium vetted "clear" after hanging throughout in the Redelva Stakes, while Shrapnel (cardiac arrhythmia) requires a vet's certificate and a satisfactory barrier trial before he races again. Perhaps the most interesting post-script came from Nitschke Stakes placegetter Addiction To Rock, who jockey Adrian Patterson said was still being assisted by a barrier attendant when the gates opened. As Addiction To Rock placed, stewards could not declare him a non-starter.

Tillie in the box seat

TILLIE Neve and Jordan Frew look to have it between them as the Marcellin Technical College Apprentice Challenge heads into its final leg at Strathalbyn on Wednesday. Neve, who won the last heat on Race Memory for her master Ken Sweeney, has 13 points. Frew, who won on Not So Chunky for his parents Kevin and Heather Frew in the challenge's opening round, has seven points. The winner scores a technology package valued at $2000.