BRIGHT SPARK: Marcellin Technical College Apprentice of the Year winner is Laura Priest, a current second year school-based electrical apprentice with Siemax Electrical. Laura is the first female student to win the Apprentice of the Year award since the College, formerly the Australian Technical College – Adelaide South, was established in 2007. She was presented with her award at the College's graduation ceremony on November 18. The support of major sponsor ASC Shipbuilding Pty Ltd in contributing $1,000 towards the prize, along with other industry sponsors, was acknowledged on the night.

MARY MEMENTO: St Columba College Year 11 Students with the Mary MacKillop miniature statue: Matthew Horn, Hayley Riddle, Nathalie Preen, Stauros Theonasis.

A bronze miniature statue of Saint Mary MacKillop will take pride of place in the chapel at St Columba's College thanks to a successful fundraising initiative which also helped raise more than $13,000 dollars for the Pakistan Emergency Relief Fund.

The entire school community took part in The Mary MacKillop Walkathon on October 18, a day after the canonisation ceremony in Rome, and raised $18,000 in the process.

Development Manager Jim Donaghy said the statue would be a "perpetual reminder of the generous student body, a reminder to become part of our community and a standard for us to strive for".

"Mary said if you see something about it... "Presently in Pakistan children and adults or homeless, over 100 million have lost their homes and possessions – this cannot ignore."
