

Footy scholarships

APPRENTICESHIPS: Marcellin Technical College will offer scholarships to two junior players from South Adelaide Football Club. The Christie Downs school says it will offer school-based apprenticeships to players under an arrangement which will see the club and college work closer together. Marcellin principal Jim Fenoughty said the scholarships aimed to combine sport with education and training.